

The Assumption Catholic School Foundation has been nominated for the Favorite Non-Profit of the year for Whatcom County for 2019. This is a promotion put on by the Bob Wallin Insurance agency here in Bellingham. As our team plays an important leadership role in our parish, I am asking each of you to cast as many votes as you possibly can as the Assumption School foundation board is committed to winning this award! Please forward this email on to as many people as you can.

There are many very worthy non-profits who have been nominated this year, but there is no better worthy nominee than our Assumption School foundation.

The winner of this award will receive a $2,000 cash contribution, with second place of $1,000 and third place of $500. After we win the first-place award this year, these proceeds will be placed in the long term school endowment fund which will benefit the school and Catholic Education in Whatcom County in perpetuity.

With your help and assistance as we know will be able to win the first place prize!
