Tonya is a single mom raising two young boys on her own. With her busy life, she seldom takes time to “shop” for herself at Hope House, but today she is in need of underwear. As she gingerly picks through the few used (and we make sure they are in very good condition!) pairs, she comments that heaven would be a fresh pack of new underwear. Simple things make life bearable when most of your life is difficult. There are very few items I demand be new at Hope House, and I have had to compromise on underwear to a degree, but I prefer we have NEW underwear to offer our clients. It is a human dignity issue with me. Would you or I like to wear someone's old, stretched out, cast off panties?! No, we would not, so we should not expect our brothers and sisters in Christ to wear them, either. I would like to make a plea at this time for packages of new underwear for all ages and genders—we would be so very grateful! We are also out of men's socks at this time and we are in desperate need of baby formula! Blessings,
Cheri Woolsey

Saint John Paul II made an astounding claim: “The body, and it alone, is capable of making visible what is invisible, the spiritual and divine. It was created to transfer into the visible reality of the world, the invisible mystery hidden in God from time immemorial, and thus to be a sign of it.” By those words, the saint-pope ushered in a new era of Catholic theology with his ground-breaking “theology of the body.” Applying John Paul II's reflections on the human body like a kind of “leaven,” we will explore various themes relevant to daily life, as a single or married man.

A Stewardship Moment

Alleluia! Christ is risen and is victorious over sin and death! We are good stewards of our faith if, like St. Paul, we share this good news whenever and wherever we can.

Un Momento De Corresponsabilidad

¡Aleluya! Cristo ha resucitado y es victorioso sobre el pecado y la muerte! Somos buenos administradores de nuestra fe si, como San Pablo, compartimos esta buena nueva en todos los sitios y en todos los momentos en que podamos.

Almighty God,

We thank You for all the gifts You have given us; our lives, our loved ones, in short all that we are and all that we have.

Most of all, we thank You for Jesus, Your son and our redeemer, who came among us to show us the way to eternal life.

Jesus was the perfect steward of Your gifts, showing us that complete trust in You is necessary and that giving of self is a most important part of following Him.

Please help us to grow in Your love and in the strength to give of ourselves to others so that we may follow Your son's example and help all people to complete His mission of salvation.

May our every offering of our time, talents, and our material resources be made in the same spirit of sacrifice that Jesus taught us by His life and death for us.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your son and our Lord.

Amen
