THE CHRISTIAN VIEW OF WEALTH

Take time to quiet your thoughts and concerns. Break open the Holy Scriptures and read 1 Timothy 6:6-12, 17-19 and Matthew 6:19-24. Open your heart and mind to discover the place and purpose of material possessions in the Christian's sense of priorities. Online Catholic Bible link: <http://www.usccb.org/bible/books-of-the-bible/index.cfm>

We live according to our priorities more than our professions. Regardless of what we say, our actions and our conduct (what we do and how we live) spell out for the world to see what our real priorities are in life. And when it comes to money, how we use it and what it takes to turn loose of it reveals our priorities.

Contrast of Financial Priorities

1 Timothy 6:6-10: "But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it. But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. People who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs."

In his letter to Timothy, St. Paul reduces the complexities of life to a very simple principle, that nothing we acquire here in this life can be kept forever – just as we entered life without anything, so we must release every earthly possession when we leave it. Paul seems to be saying that if we must release it before we depart this earth, even if by force, then it is much better not to grasp it too tightly along the way. Corrie ten Boom talked about how the harder we grasp something, the more the hurt when God must pry our fingers and our hearts away from it. After all, it is supreme folly to jeopardize the soul in acquiring earthly things that must be left behind.

The Christian ideal is to be so content with God and God's ways that the "love of money" doesn't get a hearing in our souls. Money is seen in the light of providing for our daily and family needs, and we can be satisfied with that. Anything more than that is to be distributed to wherever the need might be, as God would direct. God intends that we accomplish His purpose with whatever resources He has placed at our disposal.

How can we tell what our financial priorities are? We need look only as far as how we spend it, and what it takes for us to turn loose of it. If, for example, we purchase nice things for our home and family, while neglecting the support of God's work, then we can easily see the low level of priority God has in our lives. Think of what it means about priorities when Americans spend more money on pet food every year than they give to its churches. Our checkbooks can quickly reveal our priorities. As Jesus said, "Where your treasure is there will your heart be also."

The Perils and Possibilities of the Rich

The people of God must have a higher set of priorities than the "love of money". To accomplish this takes both a negative and positive action – to flee evil and to pursue good. Left to our own whims and wishes, we will naturally drift into the trap of the "love of money," just as the world has. It will take action – strong and purposeful action on our part – to avoid the dangers of uncontrolled financial desires. So we must actively flee all this, finding ways to avoid and escape the entrapments of money all around us. And the best way to avoid those entrapments is to fortify our souls by pursuing "righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness."

"To be good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share" – this sounds like those who consider themselves to be stewards, not owners. The true spirit of stewardship is seen in: 1) being rich in good deeds; 2) generous; and 3) willing to open their hands and share with others. This is how God intended life to be – that we enjoy the benefits of each other's generosity.

Making Your Riches Last

Since we can take nothing out of this world, it appears that our riches can only be useful in this present age. We must give them to be used for His purposes while they are still in our hands. They won't do us any good while we hoard them for ourselves, for it is only in giving them that they become meaningful and eternally precious to us.

Matthew 6:19-21 – "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Where is your heart?

LA VISIÓN CRISTIANA DE RIQUEZA

Toma un momento para calmar tus pensamientos y preocupaciones. Abre las Escrituras Sagradas y lee 1 Timoteo 6:6-12, 17-19 y Mateo 6:19-24. Abre tu corazón y tu mente para descubrir el lugar y propósito de las posesiones materiales dentro del sentido de prioridades del cristiano. Enlace en línea de la Biblia Católica: <http://www.usccb.org/bible/books-of-the-bible/index.cfm>

Vivimos según a nuestras prioridades más que nuestras profesiones. A pesar de todo lo que decimos, nuestras acciones y nuestra conducta (lo que hacemos y como vivimos) deletrean para que todo el mundo lo vea lo que nuestras verdaderas prioridades en la vida son. Y cuando se trata de dinero, como lo usamos y lo que se toma para soltarlo revela nuestras prioridades.

Contraste de prioridades financieras

1 Timoteo 6:6-10: “Pero gran ganancia es la piedad acompañada de contentamiento; porque nada hemos traído a este mundo, y sin duda nada podremos sacar. Así que, teniendo sustento y abrigo, estemos contentos con esto. Porque los que quieren enriquecerse caen en tentación y lazo, y en muchas codicias necias y dañosas, que hunden a los hombres en destrucción y perdición; porque la raíz de todos los males es el amor al dinero, el cual codiciando algunos, se extraviaron de la fe, y fueron traspasados de muchos dolores.”

En su carta a Timoteo, San Pablo reduce las complejidades de la vida a un principio muy sencillo, nada que adquirimos en esta vida será nuestro para siempre. Precisamente, como hemos entrado en esta vida sin nada, por lo tanto, tenemos que soltar cada posesión terrenal cuando lo dejamos. Pablo parece decir que si tenemos que soltar las posesiones antes de dejar la tierra, incluso por la fuerza, entonces es mejor no agarrarlas demasiado fuerte por el camino. Corrie ten Boom habló sobre cómo en cuanto más fuerte que nos aferramos a algo, más será el daño cuando Dios debe arrancarlo de nuestros dedos y nuestros corazones lejos de ello. Después de todo, es una locura suprema arriesgar el alma en adquirir las cosas terrenas, que debemos dejar atrás.

Lo ideal para un cristiano es estar tan satisfecho con Dios y Sus costumbres que el “amor al dinero” no merece audiencia en nuestras almas. El dinero es visto a la luz de la prestación en nuestro quehacer diario y las necesidades de la familia, y podemos estar satisfechos con eso. Cualquier cantidad sobrante es distribuida donde se encuentra la necesidad, según la voluntad de Dios. Dios se propone que logremos Su propósito con la ayuda de los recursos que Él ha puesto a nuestra disposición.

¿Cómo podemos determinar nuestras prioridades financieras? Solo necesitamos observar como gastamos, y lo que nos cuesta soltar nuestro dinero. Si, por ejemplo, compramos cosas bonitas para nuestra casa y familia, mientras que negamos apoyar la obra de Dios, podemos ver fácilmente la baja prioridad que tiene Dios en nuestras vidas. Piensa en el significado sobre prioridades cuando americanos gastan cada año más dinero en comida de mascotas que donaciones a sus iglesias. Nuestros cheques pueden revelar rápidamente nuestras prioridades. Como ha dicho Jesús, “Donde está tu tesoro allí estará también tu corazón.”

Peligros y Posibilidades de los Ricos

La gente de Dios debe tener un conjunto de prioridades más altas que el “amor al dinero”. Lograr esta meta requiere acciones negativas y positivas—huir de la maldad y perseguir la bondad. Dejado a nuestros propios caprichos y deseos, naturalmente derivamos a la trampa del “amor al dinero”, al igual que ha ocurrido al mundo. Faltará acción fuerte y decidida para evitar los peligros de deseos financieros sin control. Entonces, tenemos que abandonar activamente todo esto, y buscar los mecanismos para evitar y escapar de las trampas de dinero que nos rodean. Y la mejor manera para evitar las trampas es fortificar nuestras almas con la persecución de “justicia, la piedad, la fe, el amor, la paciencia, y la delicadeza.”

“Que hagan bien, que sean ricos en buenas obras, generosos, dispuestos a compartir”— Esto suena como aquellos que se consideran a sí mismos ser administradores y no propietarios. Podemos ver el espíritu verdadero de rectoría en: 1) siendo rico en obras de bondad; 2) siendo generoso; y 3) dispuesto a abrir las manos y compartir con los demás. Esto es el diseño de Dios para nuestra vida—que disfrutemos de los frutos de la generosidad de otros.

Hacer sus Riqueza Perdurar

Como no podemos llevar nada fuera de este mundo, parece que nuestras riquezas solo tienen utilidad en la actualidad. Mientras que todavía están en nuestras manos debemos darles a ser utilizados para los propósitos del Señor. Atesorar las riquezas no nos hará ningún bien, ya que es sólo en darles que se convierten en significativas y eternamente valioso para nosotros.

Mateo 6:19-21 —“No os hagáis tesoros en la tierra, donde la polilla y el orín corrompen, y donde ladrones minan y hurtan; sino haced tesoros en el cielo, donde ni la polilla ni el orín corrompen, y donde ladrones no minan ni hurtan. Porque donde esté vuestro tesoro, allí estará también vuestro corazón.

INTERFAITH COALITION'S OUR HOUSE FRAME SIGNING

Please drop by on Sunday, January 26 between 1 – 2:30 pm at Our House in Ferndale to bless the home with prayers for homeless families. Interfaith Coalition's Our House is currently under construction and when completed it will provide temporary housing to homeless families. Join us to sign posts and frames during the Our House construction to surround the homeless families who will live in the home. Your blessings will live on beneath the finished construction. Because of limited parking at the construction site, please park at the United Church of Ferndale, 2034 Washington Street, and a free shuttle will bring you to Our House.

Our House involves the expansion of an existing single-family residence into a triplex. Funding for the project comes from monetary and in-kind contributions from individuals and congregations throughout Whatcom County. When completed this spring, the triplex is expected to annually house around 12 families that would otherwise be homeless. While living at Our House and in Interfaith Coalition's eight other units of homeless housing, families will receive case management services to help develop skills critical to breaking the cycle of homelessness. After three months or longer in Interfaith Housing, 90% of families find stable housing.

Please join us to bless Our House families. For additional information, please contact Interfaith Coalition at 734-3983.

An Encounter with Fr. Henri Nouwen

See and hear Father Henri J. M. Nouwen as he reveals what it means to be a beloved son or daughter of God. How do we live our lives as the beloved and how do we claim our “belovedness”? What are the disciplines of being the beloved that enable us to keep space open in our lives for God? Fr. Nouwen explores these topics in a series of stirring, inspirational talks given in summer 1992 at the Crystal Cathedral in Garden Grove, California. If you have never heard Henri Nouwen speak, you are in for a huge treat; those who have will surely be reenergized in hearing once again from this spiritually impassioned priest and pastor.

There will also be a showing of his biography, “Journey of the Heart – The Life of Fr. Henri Nouwen.”

You are loved with an everlasting Love!

Project Rachel is a program of Catholic Community Service

You are all aware of the wonderful work Hope House does for our neighbors in need, but did you know the following things about Hope House:

- We have no public restrooms for our clients, including those who are homeless.
  - Our only handicap access is through the back door, through a maze of obstacles, and even when inside, those in wheelchairs cannot access some shopping areas.
  - We have no covered waiting area outside for our clients, who arrive early.
  - Our staff is often working on top of one another, due to cramped conditions.
  - Our kitchen sink backs up regularly, and our toilet is delicate, to say the least!
  - Our heat is sporadic; with some rooms warm and toasty, some cold and the upstairs has no heat at all.
  - We had a small electrical fire several years ago, due to an unused light fixture catching some donations on fire. We also have an outlet that if bumped, shorts out half of the building's power.
- We have squirrels under Hope House and in the attic and WE HAVE MICE!!!!

So when you hear that our Capital Campaign is raising money for Hope House, this is why—we need a new Hope House. If our parish can raise $250,000, we will then ask the greater community to contribute more so that all of our neighbors continue to receive the assistance they so desperately need. Please support us through the Capital Campaign.

God bless you with grace,
Cheri Woolsey & the staff and clients of Hope House

A Stewardship Moment

Our Baptism, like the Lord's, is a consecration to service. The bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us that "...there is a fundamental obligation arising from the Sacrament of Baptism that people use their gifts, their resources — their selves — at God's service in and through the Church."

Un Momento De Corresponsabilidad

Nuestro Bautismo, al igual que el del Señor, es una consagración al servicio. La pastoral de los obispos sobre la Administración de los talentos como Bienes de Dios nos recuerda que "...existe una obligación fundamental que se origina del sacramento del bautismo, de que las personas pongan sus regalos, sus recursos — y a sí mismas — al servicio de Dios dentro de la Iglesia y a través de ella."

Almighty and ever-faithful Lord, gratefully acknowledging Your mercy and humbly admitting our need, we pledge our trust in You and each other.

Filled with desire, we respond to Your call for discipleship by shaping our lives in imitation of Christ. We profess that the call requires us to be stewards of Your gifts.

As stewards, we receive Your gifts gratefully, cherish and tend them in a responsible manner, share them in practice and love with others, and return them with increase to you.

We pledge to our ongoing formation as stewards and our responsibility to call others to that same endeavour. Almighty and ever-faithful God, it is our fervent hope and prayer that You who have begun this good work in us will bring it to fulfilment in Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen
