ORDINARY TIME

There's nothing ordinary about it. Perhaps the translation of Ordinary Time is unfortunate, since no time in the worship of God is ordinary. During this time the Mass readings consider the events of Christ's life. Ordinary Time is celebrated in two segments: from the Monday following the Baptism of Our Lord up to Ash Wednesday; and from Pentecost Monday to the First Sunday of Advent. This makes it the largest season of the Liturgical Year. During this season the color is green, the color of hope and growth, the Church counts the thirty-four Sundays of Ordinary Time, inviting her children to meditate upon the whole mystery of Christ – his life, miracles and teachings – in the light of his Resurrection.

THIS GRACE OF GIVING

Giving is a grace that is essential to the Christian life. It is not an extra or special quality reserved for a few “super saints,” for it is the grace that ties us most closely to our Lord.

The Grace of Rich Generosity (II Corinthians 8:1-5)

“And now brothers, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian churches. Out of the most severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity. For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own, they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the saints. And they did not do as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us in keeping with God’s will.”

In Paul’s second letter to the Corinthians, he pours out his heart about several topics related to the Christian’s deeper walk with the Lord, one of which is the grace of giving. It appears the Christians in Jerusalem were suffering extreme poverty, and several churches started by Paul on his missionary journeys were collecting money to send for their relief.

Enabled by the grace of God, these Macedonian churches gave beyond what was expected or even deemed possible. You could call this “sacrificial giving.” Their generosity came not from their abundance but from their poverty, even extreme poverty. There is nothing about poverty itself that makes us generous. For that matter, there is nothing about having an abundance that makes us generous. Generosity is an attitude of the heart, not a condition of the checkbook. In a time of great affliction, they were still concerned about giving to others.

The grace of giving is not something we do entirely on our own. It is giving our full consent to God, allowing Him to accomplish His purposes through us. We acknowledge that God provides all our abilities and resources. Even more, this grace of giving is dependent upon our proper attitudes, as well as upon God for wisdom and strength in the use and distribution of our gifts.

The Macedonians especially wanted to give themselves first to the Lord. When we do that, money is no longer an issue. Actually giving money was the outward expression of having given themselves first to the Lord. And then, their giving was in obedience to the divine will of God.

The Proving of Love (II Corinthians 8:6-9, 24, 9:1,2)

6-9 – “So we urged Titus, since he had earlier made a beginning, to bring also to completion this act of grace on your part. But just as you excel in everything – in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in your love for us – see that you also excel in this grace of giving. I am not commanding you, but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich.”

24 – “Therefore show these men the proof of your love and the reason for our pride in you, so that the churches can see it.”

9:1-2 – “There is no need for me to write to you about this service to the saints. For I know your eagerness to help, and I have been boasting about it to the Macedonians, telling them that since last year you in Achaia were ready to give; and your enthusiasm has stirred most of them to action.”

In II Corinthians 8:6-9,24, Paul commends them for their positive spiritual depth and experience (faith, speech, knowledge, earnestness, and love), then his attention focuses on their excelling in this grace of giving. How do you know when you have excelled in this grace? These other graces he mentions (faith, etc.) cannot be measured. There is no scale to determine our level of faith. Is there a way to tell if we excel in our giving? Certainly! We can measure our growth in this area by examining the extent of our giving.

In the Scriptures, we are never encouraged to compare amounts, but we are encouraged to compare the extent of the sacrifice. Equal sacrifice, not equal giving.

The ultimate comparison, of course, is with the sacrificial gift of our Lord Himself. All our giving wanes in comparison to His. Not only did He die for our redemption, His example shows us the extreme and inescapable incentive of all Christian generosity – “so that you through His poverty might become rich.” If we must compare our giving to our Lord’s, then we too are to sacrifice of our own personal good so others might become rich in their relationship with God.

Faithfulness, Willingness, and Equality (II Corinthians 8:10-15)

“And here is my advice about what is best for you in this matter: Last year you were the first not only to give but also to have the desire to do so. Now finish the work, so that your eager willingness to do it may be matched by your completion of it, according to your means. For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what he does not have. Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality. At the present time your plenty will supply what they need, so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. Then there will be equality, as it is written: “He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little.”

The church has suffered too often by those who start in a flurry of good intentions, and then falter by the wayside when the extent of their character runs out. Sometimes emergencies do interfere, and God knows about those. But to simply lay our commitment aside when the motivation is no longer present and the circumstances make it tough to fulfill a promise is to betray ourselves and the integrity of our character. The Psalmist declared, “Make vows to the Lord your God and fulfill them” (Psalm 76:11). And Solomon emphasizes “when you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it. He has no pleasure in fools; fulfill your vow. It is better not to make a vow than to make a vow and not fulfill it” (Ecclesiastes 5:4, 5).

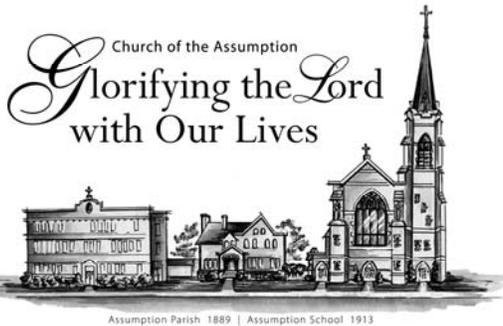

Does that mean we are not to make vows to God? Certainly not! We would be anchorless without our commitments to and relationship with Him. The emphasis here is to consider seriously the vows and purpose, and then be faithful in fulfilling them.

Our means will certainly affect the extent of our giving. But an even greater influence on our giving is our willingness to do so. It is the willingness to give, not just our ability to give that will determine the acceptability of our giving. God knows that we cannot give what we do not have, but He also knows we can give what we do have. We are not judged by what we are unable to give, but by what we are able to do. So those who are giving their full potential should take encouragement from the God who sees and knows all.

What a picture of the unity of the Body of Christ – the Church. While some may be able to give more than others, and they need to, the others will contribute to the support of the Body in other ways. But whether the amount is great or small, everyone can participate in this “grace of giving.”

And as we obey God’s revealed will in our giving, we will experience both joy in Him, and the thrill of freedom from this world’s possessions.

Open your heart to hear God’s will for you.

La Gracia de Dar

Dar es una gracia esencial para la vida cristiana. No es una calidad suplementaria o especial reservada para “santos súper”, ya que es la gracia que nos une más estrechamente a nuestro Señor.

La Gracia de Riquezas de su Generosidad (II Corintios 8 1:5)

“Asimismo, hermanos, os hacemos saber la gracia de Dios que se ha dado a las iglesias de Macedonia; que en grande prueba de tribulación, la abundancia de su gozo y su profunda pobreza abundaron en riquezas de su generosidad. Pues doy testimonio de que con agrado han dado conforme a sus fuerzas, y aún más allá de sus fuerzas, pidiéndonos con muchos ruegos que les concediésemos el privilegio de participar en este servicio para los santos. Y no como lo esperábamos, sino que a sí mismos se dieron primeramente al Señor, y luego a nosotros por la voluntad de Dios;”

En su segunda carta a los Corintios, Pablo desahoga su corazón sobre varios temas relacionados con el paseo más profundo del cristiano con el Señor, uno de los cuales es la gracia de dar. Parece que los cristianos en Jerusalén sufrían la pobreza extrema, y varias iglesias comenzadas por Paul en sus viajes del misionero coleccionaban el dinero para aliviarles.

Habilitado por la gracia de Dios. Permitido por la gracia de Dios, estas iglesias macedonias dieron más allá de lo que se esperó o hasta se juzgó posible. Podría llamar esto “dar de sacrificio.” Su generosidad vino no de su abundancia, pero de su pobreza, hasta pobreza extrema. No hay nada sobre la propia pobreza que nos hace generosos. En realidad, no hay nada sobre tener una abundancia que nos hace generosos. La generosidad es una actitud del corazón, no una condición del talonario de cheques. En un tiempo de la gran aflicción, todavía estaban preocupados por dar a los demás.

La gracia de dar no es algo que hacemos únicamente por nuestra cuenta. Es dar nuestro consentimiento pleno a Dios, permitiéndole lograr Sus propósitos a través de nosotros. Reconocemos que Dios es la fuente de nuestras capacidades y nuestros recursos. Aún más, esta gracia de dar depende de nuestras actitudes apropiadas, así como de Dios para sabiduría y fortaleza en el uso y la distribución de nuestros regalos.

Los macedonios sobre todo quisieron darse primero al Señor. Cuando hacemos esto, el dinero ya no es un factor. En realidad, dando el dinero era la expresión externa de haberse dado primero al Señor. Entonces, su acto de dar estaba en la obediencia a la voluntad divina de Dios.

La demostración de Amor (II Corintios 8:6 -9, 24, 9:1,2)

6-9 – “de manera que exhortamos a Tito para que tal como comenzó antes, asimismo acabe también entre vosotros esta obra de gracia. Por tanto, como en todo abundáis, en fe, en palabra, en ciencia, en toda solicitud, y en vuestro amor para con nosotros, abundad también en esta gracia. No hablo como quien manda, sino para poner a prueba, por medio de la diligencia de otros, también la sinceridad del amor vuestro. Porque ya conocéis la gracia de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que por amor a vosotros se hizo pobre, siendo rico, para que vosotros con su pobreza fueseis enriquecidos.”

24 – “Mostrad, pues, para con ellos ante las iglesias la prueba de vuestro amor, y de nuestro gloriamos respecto de vosotros.”

9:1-2 – “No hay necesidad de que yo os escriba acerca de este servicio para los santos. Porque yo sé que su afán de ayudar, y me han comentado con orgullo entre los macedonios, diciéndoles que desde el año pasado que Acaya esta dispuesto a dar, y su entusiasmo ha despertado la mayoría de ellos a la acción.”

En II Corintios 8:6-9, 24, Paul los alaba para su profundidad espiritual positiva y experiencia (fe, discurso, conocimiento, seriedad y amor), entonces su atención se centra en la maestría de esta gracia de dar. ¿Cómo se puede saber cuándo se han destacado en esta gracia? Estas otras gracias que menciona (fe, etc.) no se pueden medir. No hay ninguna escala para determinar nuestro nivel de la fe. ¿Hay una manera de juzgar si sobresalimos en nuestros actos de dar? ¡Por supuesto! Podemos medir nuestro crecimiento de esta área examinando el grado del que damos.

En las escrituras sagradas, nunca se nos anima a comparar las cantidades, pero nos animamos a comparar el grado del sacrificio. Sacrificio igual, no dar igual.

La comparación definitiva, por supuesto, es con el regalo de sacrificio de nuestro Señor mismo. Todo que damos mengua en comparación con el del Señor. No sólo murió para nuestra redención, su ejemplo nos demuestra el incentivo extremo e inevitable de toda la generosidad cristiana – “de modo que a través de Su pobreza se pudiera hacer rico.” Si tenemos que comparar el que damos a nuestro Señor, también debemos de sacrificar de nuestra bien personal para que otras podrían convertirse en ricos en su relación con Dios.

Fidelidad, Voluntad e Igualdad (II Corintios 8:10-15)

“Y en esto doy mi consejo; porque esto os conviene a vosotros, que comenzasteis antes, no sólo a hacerlo, sino también a quererlo, desde el año pasado. Ahora, pues, llevad también a cabo el hacerlo, para que como estuvisteis prontos a querer, así también lo estéis en cumplir conforme a lo que tengáis. Porque si primero hay la voluntad dispuesta, será acepta según lo que uno tiene, no según lo que no tiene. Porque no digo esto para que haya para otros holgura, y para vosotros estrechez, sino para que en este tiempo, con igualdad, la abundancia vuestra supla la escasez de ellos, para que también la abundancia de ellos supla la necesidad vuestra, para que haya igualdad, como está escrito: El que recogió mucho, no tuvo más, y el que poco, no tuvo menos.”

La iglesia ha sufrido demasiado a menudo por aquellas personas que empiezan en un frenesí de buenas intenciones, y, a continuación, caer por el camino cuando el alcance de su carácter se agota. A veces las emergencias realmente interfieren, y Dios sabe sobre aquellos. Pero es traicionar a nosotros mismos y la integridad de nuestro personaje simplemente dejar nuestro compromiso a un lado cuando la motivación ya no está presente y las circunstancias complican el cumplimiento de una promesa. El Salmista declaró, “Haga votos al Señor su Dios y cumplidlos” (Salmo 76:11). Y Solomon enfatiza “Cuando hagas un voto a Dios, no tardes en cumplirlo, porque a Dios no le agradan los insensatos. Cumple tus votos. Vale más no hacer votos que hacerlos y no cumplirlos.”

¿Significa esto que no debemos hacer votos a Dios? ¡Desde luego que no! Estaríamos sin anclaje sin nuestros compromisos y relación con Él. El énfasis aquí es de considerar seriamente los votos y el propósito y, a continuación, ser fieles en su cumplimiento.

Nuestros medios afectarán seguramente el grado del que damos. Pero una influencia aún mayor en el que damos es nuestra buena voluntad para hacerlo. Es la buena voluntad de dar, no sólo nuestra capacidad de dar lo que determinará la aceptabilidad del que damos. Dios sabe que no podemos dar lo que no tenemos, pero también sabe que podemos dar lo que realmente tenemos. No somos juzgados por lo que no somos capaces de dar, sino por lo que somos capaces de hacer. Por lo tanto, aquellos que están dando su pleno potencial deben tomar aliento del Dios que ve y sabe todo.

¡Qué imagen de la unidad del Cuerpo de Cristo — la iglesia! Mientras que algunos pueden ser capaces de dar más que otros, y deben hacerlo, los demás contribuirán al apoyo del Cuerpo de otros modos. Pero si la cantidad es grande o pequeña, cada uno puede participar en esta “gracia de dar.”

Y como nosotros obedecemos la voluntad revelada de Dios en el que damos, experimentaremos tanto la alegría en Él como la emoción de la libertad de las posesiones de este mundo.

Abre tu corazón para escuchar la voluntad de Dios para ti.

COMMUNICATIONS & DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR PART-TIME POSITION AT INTERFAITH COALITION

Interfaith Coalition of Whatcom County seeks a 20 hour per week experienced development and communications director to work with our small staff in a dynamic, non-profit office. The coalition is a partnership of over 40 congregations that provides housing to homeless families, severe weather shelters, and support to Interfaith Community Health Center. Please contact Interfaith Coalition at info@interfaith-coalition.org or 734-3983 for a job description.

She's pregnant and alone, but she's doing the right thing for her baby by carrying her to term and giving her up for adoption. I am impressed by her strength and courage, and I am so glad Hope House is here for her. "Katie" has all the medical support she needs and the Christian adoption service is helping her in many ways, as well, however, when it comes to maternity clothing and the stress of a shrinking budget, we are able to help ease that load. I also like to think we offer emotional and spiritual support, an understanding hug, and some "cheerleading" for her wonderful decision to choose life for her child.

We are always in need of maternity clothing—always. God bless,

INTERFAITH COALITION'S MARCH 22 ANNUAL HOPE AUCTION

Save the date for Interfaith Coalition's Annual Hope Auction on Saturday, March 22. You will enjoy an evening of fun and community spirit, and the proceeds will support housing for homeless families and health care for all in need. The auction is Interfaith's biggest fundraising event, and raises more than one-third of Interfaith's annual income. The evening begins at 5:30 p.m. at the Best Western Lakeway Inn in Bellingham. Tickets are on sale now for $45 each, which includes a sit-down dinner.

You also may support the event by contributing an item to be auctioned. If you can provide a service, getaway home, art or craft item, gift certificate or other sought-after item, then you have something to offer that would raise money to assist local people in need. The coalition also is seeking financial support to help underwrite the auction.

For more information, tickets, or to make a donation, please call Interfaith Coalition at 734-3983, or contact Mike DiSpigno, who represents our congregation on the coalition board.

INTERFAITH COALITION’S OUR HOUSE FRAME SIGNING

Please drop by on Sunday, January 26 between 1 – 2:30 pm at Our House in Ferndale to bless the home with prayers for homeless families. Interfaith Coalition’s Our House is currently under construction and when completed it will provide temporary housing to homeless families. Join us to sign posts and frames during the Our House construction to surround the homeless families who will live in the home. Your blessings will live on beneath the finished construction. Because of limited parking at the construction site, please park at the United Church of Ferndale, 2034 Washington Street, and a free shuttle will bring you to Our House.

Our House involves the expansion of an existing single-family residence into a triplex. Funding for the project comes from monetary and in-kind contributions from individuals and congregations throughout Whatcom County. When completed this spring, the triplex is expected to annually house around 12 families that would otherwise be homeless. While living at Our House and in Interfaith Coalition’s eight other units of homeless housing, families will receive case management services to help develop skills critical to breaking the cycle of homelessness. After three months or longer in Interfaith Housing, 90% of families find stable housing.

Please join us to bless Our House families. For additional information, please contact Interfaith Coalition at 734-3983.

A Stewardship Moment

Today’s responsorial psalm is the theme song of the good steward: “Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.” May I, too, stand ready to offer myself and my gifts in the service of God.

Un Momento De Corresponsabilidad

Es Salmo de oración de hoy es la canción del tema del buen administrador. “Aquí estoy, Señor; Vengo a hacer tu voluntad.” Que yo también pueda estar listo para ofrecer mis regalos y a mi mismo al servicio de Dios.

Lord Jesus, you have challenged us with your holy words in sacred scripture: That the one who "seeks to save his life will lose it;" That the one who "loses his life for your sake will save it for all eternity;" That the "greatest among us is the one who serves the rest;" That it is "harder for a rich man to enter heaven than for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle;" That our "true treasure is in heaven."

Lord, you have given us your generous promises: That you treasure greatly the sacrificial spirit of the widow’s mite; That you will reward with hundredfold harvest those who sow in the rich soil of faith; That you will not be outdone in generosity; That you will not give us burdens that we cannot bear. We thank you, above all, for the joy-filled gift of faith and the inspirational witness of generous saints of ages past.

Lord, give us the strength and the faith to respond to your challenging words. We ask you to help us to be responsible stewards of your gifts. We ask you to bless us with the courage, generosity, and selflessness to help us multiply your gifts among us for the glory of your name. Amen
