Dearest Whatcom County Parishioners,

I want to provide some context for Fr. Thumbi's move and the Claretians priests we are receiving on July 01. These are two originally independent events that just so happen to coincide.

Fr. Thumbi's Illness

Around September or October, Fr. Thumbi began to feel terrible back and gut pain that was eventually diagnosed in December as Stage 4 Prostate Cancer that had spread to his backbone. Since beginning treatment, his pain has significantly reduced, but his energy levels have significantly diminished and he has been unable to carry a full load of parishioner meetings or events. Shortly after the diagnosis, he realized that he would likely need to request a move to Seattle in order to be closer to the major cancer treatments there.

Having spoken with Fr. Thumbi a few times about this, I can tell you that his heart very much remains in Whatcom County. According to him, one of the great ironies of his priesthood is how much he loves rural ministry and desires to be a simply country priest, and how many times he has been assigned to a major city instead. Once again, he is living this great irony by moving from Lynden to Seattle. Please honor and celebrate him as best as you can leading up to his move, according to his wishes.

Approaching the Claretians

Independently, about a year ago Fr. Art Gramaje, CMF, put on my radar that the Claretian Order of Priests (Wikipedia, Provincial Page) were consolidating their missions and opening a new outpost just north of us in Vancouver, BC. Fr. Art was a high school friend of my uncle and had spent the last four years in the Archdiocese of Seattle taking care of his ailing mother until she passed. He continues to be invested in the success of our Archdiocese and our relationship to his order, which is why he encouraged me to reach out to the Vancouver Claretians to see if they would consider expanding their mission south of the border into Whatcom County. Months of bureaucracy later, Archbishop Etienne sent the formal request to the Claretians in mid-January and the Claretians responded with openness in mid-March. After meeting with me and some key parishioners on a quick visit, the Claretians agreed to a one-year probationary period of ministry starting July 01, that we all hope will solidify into a decades-long partnership.

What Will be Different?

The Claretian priests will not be a direct replacement for Fr. Thumbi's responsibilities here in Whatcom County. Religious Orders all have charisms – the type of and approach to ministry that makes them unique. One of the stipulations for bringing the Claretians into Whatcom County was that they would be empowered to live their specific charism, rather than just being additional sacramental ministers. You can see on their webpage that the Claretians are particularly dedicated to Hispanic ministry and ministry to immigrants and refugees, so we need to reorganize priestly responsibilities in the county to better allow them that focus.

Functionally, this means that I will no longer be engaging in Spanish-speaking ministry, instead redoubling my focus on our English-speaking communities, while continuing my special focus on the school and Lummi communities; Fr. Tyler will remain focused on the university population; and Fr. Stephan will continue to assist me with the general parish population.

One thing I would especially like to do is use this as an opportunity to convert us into a 3-week Mass rotation, rather than a four-week Mass rotation, allowing me to see each of our English-speaking Masses every three weeks. That is a complicated move, requiring quite a few Mass time changes, so I have prepared an extensive document that will allow us to discern these changes together. It is not quite ready for publication, but will be soon.

Finally, we are getting TWO Claretian priests, so won't that help with priest availability? Kind of... Fr. Gerardo Rodriguez, CMF is being assigned to us as a Parochial Vicar, so he will be working full-time in our parishes, focusing especially on Spanish-speaking ministry and living at one of our houses in Lynden. However, a key component of Religious Orders is living in community, so he will be accompanied by Fr. Manuel Villalobos, CMF, who will be living in our other house in Lynden. Fr. Manuel has advanced degrees in Scripture and helps run the Claretian Biblical Institute of America (home page, English explanation), which offers online Bible courses in Spanish, currently attended by thousands of people. Fr. Manuel will be a "priest in residence", meaning he will continue to focus on his primary ministry (the Biblical Institute) but will carry out minimal parish responsibilities to cover the cost of his housing.

Final Note

I would ask you to please pray for Fr. Thumbi, Fr. Gerardo, and Fr. Manuel in their time of transition, and to pray for our parishes as we undertake and try to implement this change. It is an exciting opportunity for us to work with the Claretian Order and I have high hopes! But I also know another big change is not what anybody was expecting after a difficult year. This is the Lord's Church, and He will always provide for us.

Blessings in Christ,

Fr. Moore

To the Parishioners of the Catholic Churches of Whatcom County

Dear Friends,

I am happy to greet all of you in the name of the Risen Lord Jesus!

Today, I write to inform you that your parish family will be entering a time of transition of parochial vicars beginning July 1, 2025. I am pleased to announce that, after consultation with the Priest Personnel Board, I have appointed Father Gerardo Rodriguez, CMF, as a new parochial vicar. He is a priest of the USA-Canada Province of Claretian Missionaries and comes to us from California. He will join current vicars, Father Tyler Johnson, who will continue as chaplain to Viking Catholic, and Father Stephan Arockia Doss Thomas, HGN. I am also pleased to share that a second Claretian Missionary, Father Manuel Villalobos, CMF, will be in residence in the parish family.

Father Rodriguez and Father Villalobos are wonderful men who will diligently and faithfully serve you in both Spanish and English. Be assured that they will receive all the necessary support and assistance from the Archdiocese of Seattle, your pastor, Father Jeffrey Moore, and the wonderful parish family staff to ensure quality pastoral care for your parish family.

At the same time, I want to personally thank Father Francis Thumbi for his generous service and leadership these many years as pastor in Blaine, Lummi, and Ferndale and as your parochial vicar this past year. I ask you to please keep Father Thumbi in your prayers as he moves forward in responding to God's call in his new assignment as parochial vicar of Christ Our Hope Parish, Immaculate Conception Parish, and St. James Cathedral in Seattle.

Times of transition can be challenging, especially as we prepare to say goodbye to a familiar presence and welcome priests. However, if embraced in an open and positive way, this can be a time of blessing for the entire parish and the Catholic Church of Western Washington. I am confident that will be the case as you welcome Father Rodriguez and Father Villalobos to your parish family. As always, I remain,

In the Heart of Christ,

Most Reverend Paul D. Etienne, DD, STL
Archbishop of Seattle

Queridos amigos:

Me alegra saludaros a todos en el nombre del Señor Jesús resucitado.

Me dirijo a ustedes en este día para informarles que su familia parroquial entrará en un tiempo de transición de vicarios parroquiales a partir del 1° de julio de 2025. Me complace anunciar que, después de consultar con la Junta de Personal Sacerdotal, he nombrado al padre Gerardo Rodríguez, CMF, como nuevo vicario parroquial. El padre Rodríguez es sacerdote de la Provincia de los Misioneros Claretianos USA-Canadá y viene a nosotros desde California. Se unirá a los vicarios actuales, el padre Tyler Johnson, quien continuará como capellán de Viking Catholic, y el padre Stephan Arockia Doss Thomas, HGN. También me complace compartir que un segundo Misionero Claretiano, el padre Manuel Villalobos, CMF, hará su residencia en la familia parroquial.

El Padre Rodríguez y el Padre Villalobos son hombres maravillosos que les servirán diligente y fielmente tanto en español como en inglés. Tengan la seguridad de que ellos recibirán todo el apoyo y la asistencia necesarios de la Arquidiócesis de Seattle, de su párroco, el Padre Jeffrey Moore, y del maravilloso personal de la familia de parroquias para garantizar una excelente atención pastoral para su familia parroquial.

Al mismo tiempo, agradezco personalmente al padre Francis Thumbi por su generoso servicio y liderazgo durante todos estos años como párroco en Blaine, Lummi y Ferndale y como su vicario parroquial el año pasado. Les pido que por favor mantengan al padre Thumbi en sus oraciones mientras responde al llamado de Dios en su nueva asignación como vicario parroquial de la Parroquia Cristo Nuestra Esperanza, la Parroquia de la Inmaculada Concepción y la Catedral de St. James en Seattle.

Los tiempos de transición pueden ser difíciles, especialmente cuando nos preparamos para decir adiós a una presencia familiar y dar la bienvenida a nuevos sacerdotes. Sin embargo, si se acepta de una manera abierta y positiva, este puede ser un tiempo de bendición para toda la parroquia y la Iglesia Católica del Oeste de Washington. Estoy seguro de que ese será el caso cuando den la bienvenida al padre Rodríguez y al padre Villalobos a su familia parroquial. Como siempre, permanezco,

Suyo en el Corazón de Cristo,

Reverendísimo Paul D. Etienne, DD, STL
Arzobispo de Seattle
